The Rev. Ernest Snyder and the Rev. Horace Weaver discussed several phases of the adult work. G. B. Roseberry spoke on Sunday School organization and Miss Eva Davis discussed the needs of a township association.

Three members of the Polk Township Sunday School association have already decided on attending this convention at Mexico. They are R. M. EVERETT BRADSHAW'S SWORN STATEMENT

State of Missouri, County of Nodaway, ss.

Everett Bradshaw, being first duly sworn, on his oath states that he is a resident of Nodaway county, Missouri, that I now reside about ten miles northwest of Maryville, Mo., and that I am 22 years of age.

That on or about the 27th day of October, 1916, I was working for Lon Lyle, and hauling bridge lumber for a bridge in the neighborhood of Lyle's. There was on the wagon with me Joe Workman, who lives some one-half mile north of the aforesaid Lon Lyle, the said Workman driving the lead team, there being four horses pulling the load. And that we met an automobile driven by one Guy Gray, and riding in the said car was George Craig, Jim Palmer (colored) and John Workman. These men stopped the car near the wagon and in hearing distance of me, whereupon Joe Workman climbed off the wagon, but before climbing off the wagon the said Joe Workman said to these men in the automobile: "Have you got any drinking whisky?" Whereupon Guy Gray said: "Get down and see." Then George Craig produced a quart bottle containing whisky, and gave the said bottle to Joe Workman, who took a drink of it These men then offered me a drink from the bottle, but I refused it. These men then solicited me to vote for John Dowden. Before leaving these men, Joe Workman said: "I would like another drink," whereupon George Craig produced the same bottle as aforesaid, gave it to Workman and he again took the second drink.

Affiant further says that on Sunday, November 5th, Joe Workman appeared at the home of Lon Lyle, being the place where I work, and calling me out in the road, said: George Craig has bought your note and mortgage that you executed to Dr. Cline. You sold the horse to me, and that he (George Craig) was going to have a warrant issued for you, but that he (Workman) had gotten him to hold the warrant until Monday.

And that if I would go down before Johnson and sign papers stating that there was no liquor used nor furnished by those men that there would be no papers issued, and that there was something in store for me.

Whereupon I refused to do so, and so stated to the said Workman, telling him I was ready to pay the note any time, but would not go to swear a lie for them.

And he further stated that he (Workman) would take me to Maryville and pay me for a day's wage if I would go and sign the aforesaid papers.

Affiant further says, I am a married man and have a wife and one child.

EVERETT BRADSHAW.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 6th day of November, 1916.

(Seal) M. G. TATE, Notary Public.

My commission expires December 28, 1918.

GREET NEW PASTORS

LARGE ATTENDANCE AT WELCOME UNION SERVICES.

GREET NEW SECRETARY

E. M. Claypool of Commercial Club Introduced—Rev. Holliday Speaks on Third Amendment.

A large crowd attended the union services at the Christian church last night, when the two new ministers, the Rev. T. H. Wiles of the Baptist church and Dr. S. A. Coile of the Presbyterian church, and the new secretary of the Commercial club, E. M. Claypool, were welcomed into our midst.

The services were opened with the invocation by Rev. Holliday, and were followed by a solo, "Fear Not Ye, O Israel," by the Rev. Gilbert S. Cox.

The Rev. Holliday spoke a few minutes on the third constitutional amendment. He said:

"The liquor traffic is the blight of the ages. The full story of its outrages is not yet known. It is now condemned before the bar of public opinion. We will dig a grave Tuesday and fill it up. On the marker will be "Here lies John Barleycorn, slain by the Christian Voter."

In his address of welcome the Rev. Cox said: "We have with us tonight one who has come to work with us. One with whom we must co-operate. We sometimes say that a man does not take away more than he brought with him. One man came here and took a wife away with him. Another took a bouncing boy."

Mr. Claypool in his response said: "I hope I don't get away with more than the other fellows did. I come as a stranger into a strange land. I am here to help you. I hope that we may become as interested in our community as it is possible for us to be."

The Rev. Cox said: "I feel like an old resident. 'The poor ye have with ye always.' We have come to welcome two men into the greatest business in the world. They come as strangers, but their Christ is great. Their messages will be those of men. Maryville demands that a minister be first a man. There will be no torchlight processions. Their work may seem unrewarded at times, but this must not affect them. May they lead the forces of God in Maryville onward.

Rev. Wiles responded in part as follows: "I have not come to follow the words of an old brother who said, 'I have come to cast out the poor and raise the devil.' I want to be the minister of the needy. I want to minister to you."

Dr. Coile said, "I am sorry that Rev. Cox has had disappointments these four years." He then told the following story: A man and his wife went to a neighbor's one day and instructed Johnny to show the minister in and entertain him until they returned. Soon a team drove up and Johnny met the man at the sidewalk. "Are you the preacher," asked Johnny. "Yes," answered the minister. "I don't think you are the man papa was looking for. He said it was a one-horse preacher." I appreciate the welcome of this crowd. I trust that I am what you want me to be—a minister of Christ.

POLLS OPEN AT SIX

THE DEMOCRATS ARE VERY HOPEFUL OF ELECTING ENTIRE TICKET

A RECORD BREAKING VOTE

Is Expected With Fair Weather Predicted—Wilson Will Carry County by 500.

Campaign managers and the candidates of the Democratic and Republican parties in Nodaway county were busily at work yesterday and today for the election tomorrow. The Democrats are very hopeful of the success of the entire county ticket, while the Republicans are pinning their hopes on one or two candidates on their ticket.

That President Wilson will carry the county is freely admitted, and many are predicting his majority here will be anywhere from 300 to 500. Gardner and Senator Reed will run close to Wilson, the leaders predict.

All signs point to a record breaking vote for this county. Fair weather is the forecast for tomorrow.

The polls will open at 6 o'clock in the morning and will remain open until 7 o'clock.

VOTERS, the office of Prosecuting Attorney is a mighty important one. The record I have made for efficiency and economy, in conducting your business, ought to appeal to the thoughtful. If you have confidence to believe that I will continue the same policy, then why change? I am young enough to render the work this office demands. Your vote and help on the 7th. will be greatly appreciated by me.

As to the Craig Matter.

The publication of a little news item concerning the arrest of George Craig, charged with a violation of the local option laws last Friday brought forth a volley of denials in the Saturday issue of the Tribune. In addition to these denials some gentlemen have been busy endeavoring to make the people believe that the whole matter was a creation out of whole cloth by The Democrat-Forum.

The Democrat-Forum has not been in the habit of publishing anything that had no foundation in fact, and it does not propose now to begin. The Democrat-Forum has not made any charge either against Mr. Craig or Mr. Dowden. The arrest was a matter of court record and was legitimate news. We are not trying the case. The courts will do that later on. Whether Craig is guilty as charged is yet to be determined, but it will be noted that the denials of George Craig and Guy Gray do not deny that they were out on a political mission. They say "about a week ago we and Jim Palmer were in that vicinity. We met several persons, the only two of whom known to us being John and Joe Workman. We discussed with them the coming election and the various county candidates."

According to their own statements they were there, and they were there with the negro politician Jim Palmer. They discussed the various county candidates. They say further that Mr. Dowden did not send them there. The Democrat-Forum did not say who sent them or that anybody sent them, but they admit in their statement that they were there.

The parties are all well known and the public can determine for itself.

FOR PUBLIC ADMINISTRATOR.

In all sincerity, I want to say that no one appreciates the good will of his fellow man more than I; but it has not been my purpose to buttonhole or annoy you about my candidacy. I felt very grateful to my friends when elected before, and indeed hope I have merited that confidence. Should I be returned to this office I assure you I shall appreciate the honor of the support of my friends far more than the mere fees of said office. Trusting that my friends (of any party) will not overlook my name for public administrator, I remain

Very truly yours,

Serviceable, Sightly and Styleful are these worthy, white, wash Waists. They are priced at just $1.00.

IN the matter of Waits—these Wirthmor models at $1.00 always offer a splendid investment. From the standpoint of attractiveness and utility they are always worth much more than the moderate price at which they're sold. The styles are always appropriate for the season—and they are made of materials that will launder well—and insure satisfactory wear. It's always economy to have a few of them in one's wardrobe.

Just one good store in every city can sell Withmor Waists. They are sold here exclusively

COMMUNICATION.

Editor Democrat-Forum:

H. M. Lincoln, vice president of the county branch of the Missouri Dry Federation, received some literature last week in favor of the wets. In it the statement was made that the Linn County News, at Linn, Mo., was in favor of the wets. Mr. Lincoln wrote to the Linn County News regarding the paper's stand on the prohibition question, and the following statement was received:

"We are in receipt of your communication in regard to the wet literature sent out from St. Louis in which this paper and its editor are said to stand against Amendment No. 3. It is woefully misrepresented. The News is absolutely dry, and its editor will vote for state wide prohibition. Our circular letters were never authorized to be used in connection with wet literature.

D. A. R. Bazaar Success.

The D. A. R. bazaar held Saturday at the home of Mrs. Joseph Jackson, Jr., was a triumph in artistry as well as a financial success. The parlors and reception room at the Jackson home were made beautiful with scores of yellow and white chrysanthemums, combined with leaves in autumn tints.

The offerings of the bazaar were shown on tables covered with handsome cluny lace cloths. One table loaded with the choicest fruits of the season, including red-cheeked apples, golden pears and ripe persimmons, was in care of Mrs. Will Montgomery. Close beside it was the candy table with Mrs. Edward Gray in charge. Here dark-hued fudges and snowy fondant containing fruits and nuts were sold throughout the afternoon.

Miss Orril Helwig presided over the cake table, and dispensed angel foods and devil foods and sponge cakes in alarming numbers.

The chrysanthemum table was popular with its yellow, white and lavender blossoms, which sold well under the management of Mrs. D. E. Mills.

Fancy work articles are things that are especially interesting at the pre-Christmas season. Consequently Miss Ruth Montgomery, in charge of the fancy work department at the bazaar had no trouble in depleting the store of embroidered, crocheted and tatted articles offered at her table.

Miss Katherine Helwig acted as cashier during the afternoon.

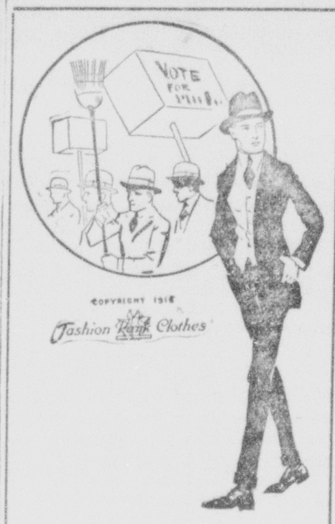

In the tea room Mrs. C. C. Corwin and Mrs. G. L. Wilfley, assisted by Miss Ethel Embree and Miss Wilfley, served the guests with tea and wafers.

Much credit for the success of the bazaar is due to the hostesses, Mrs. Jackson, Mrs. Wellington Dusenberry, Mrs. J. A. Ford and Mrs. F. M. Martin, and also to the committee in charge of the arrangements and the decorations, Mrs. C. C. Corwin, Miss Katherine Helwig, Mrs. W. J. Montgomery, Mrs. E. G. Orear and Mrs. D. J. Thomas.

The members of the D. A. R. thoroughly appreciated the patronage of the guests, and are particularly proud of the fact that over 100 women were the guests of the organization during the afternoon.

Miss Mary Campbell's Wedding.

Miss Mary Campbell, a niece of Mrs. George B. Baker and Mrs. E. F. Wolfert of this city, was married Saturday in Kansas City to Hugh Charles Doyle.

The following account of the wedding was taken from Sunday's Kansas City Star:

Miss Mary Campbell, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Campbell, was married to Mr. Hugh Charles Doyle, son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. May, at 7:30 o'clock yesterday morning at Our Lady of Good Counsel church by Monsignor Walsh. The altar was decorated with pink and white chrysanthemums, having a background of palms and ferns. The bride's gown was of silver cloth under tulle embroidered in silver and pearls. Her veil fell from a coronet of orange blossoms. She wore the gift of the bridegroom, a diamond and platinum necklace, and carried an arm bouquet of orchids and lilies of the valley. The maid of honor, Miss Pauline Bracken, wore a gown and hat of pink tulle and silver. Seven little girls, Regina Brennan, Irene Buel, Kathleen Soden, Lorene Soden, Martha Soden, Lyn Elizabeth Brown and Corinne Hogan, in frocks of white tulle preceded the bride. They carried large nosegays: Dr. Arthur Altringer acted as best man for Mr. Doyle, and the ushers were Dr. William T. Fitzsimmons and Mr. Walter Bracken. Mrs. C. F. Wise, Mrs. Thomas L. Bowles and Mrs. Ruth Blossom sang before and after the service. Mr. and Mrs. Campbell gave a buffet breakfast at their home, 3637 Wyandotte street, to relatives and intimate friends. Mrs. Campbell wore black tulle over French blue satin, and Mrs. May was gowned in heavily beaded tulle over metallic orchid cloth. Mr. and Mrs. Doyle left on an extended eastern honeymoon. On their return they will be at home, 3841 Central street. The out-of-town guests attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wolfert and Mr. and Mrs. George Baker of Maryville, Mo.; Mr. Frank Doyle and Mr. Robert Doyle of Notre Dame university; Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Bauman of Wellington, Kan.; Mrs. John W. Parker of Enid, Okla.; Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Allison and Miss Irene Buel of Tulsa, Okla.

If the vote tomorrow were to be cast for most popular roofing, instead of for the election of national officials, there would be an overwhelming plurality in favor of CERTAIN-TEED Roofing.

This is indicated by the fact that "The General" makes ⅓ of all the asphalt roll roofing made in America. The balance is "scattered" among 39 other manufacturers.

Each year CERTAIN-TEED rolls up a strikingly increasing number of advocates, because this type of roof is coming to be recognized as the most efficient covering for all kinds of buildings, with either flat or pitched roofs.

Certain-teed Roofing

is clean and sanitary, costs less to buy, less to lay, less to maintain and less per year of life. It is guaranteed for 5, 10 or 15 years, according to ply (1, 2 or 3). It actually lasts longer.

The secret of this long life lies in the quality of the roofing felt, and the asphalt saturation. Roofings do not wear out—their life depends upon the length of time they retain the saturation. CERTAIN-TEED is made of the best quality of roofing felt; and is thoroughly saturated with the General's own blend of soft asphalts, which keeps the inner saturation soft and prevents the drying-out process so destructive to the ordinary roofing.

CERTAIN-TEED is made in rolls; also in slate-surfaced shingles. There is a type of CERTAIN-TEED for every kind of building, with flat or pitched roofs, from the largest sky-scraper to the smallest residence or out-building.

CERTAIN-TEED is sold by responsible dealers all over the world, at reasonable prices. Investigate it before you decide on any type of roof.

HOW GOOD THAT MUSTEROLE FEELS!

It Gets to That Sore Spot Like Magic

A-a-h! That's delicious relief for those sore muscles, those stiff joints, that lame back.

Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with the oil of mustard and other home simples.

It does the work of the old-fashioned mustard plaster, minus the plaster and minus the blister!

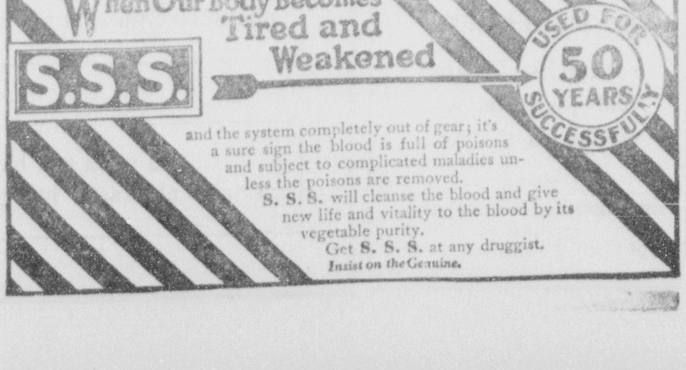

You simply rub Musterole on the spot where the pain is—rub it on briskly—and usually the pain is gone.

No muss, no bother. Just comforting, soothing relief—first a gentle glow, then a delightful sense of coolness. And best of all, no blisters like the old-fashioned mustard plaster used to make.

Use Musterole for sore throat, bronchitis, tonsilitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet and colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia).

25c and 50c jars; hospital size $2.50.

MUSTEROLE
WILL NOT BLISTER

You joy in Omar's sun-ripe leaf.
You joy in Omar's mild, cool smoke.
You joy in Omar's rich aroma-tones.

For Omar means aroma—in the smoking—in the words—Omar omar is aroma.

Omar—the perfect Turkish blend.
Even the words blend.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle. Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action, yet always effective. They bring about that exuberance of spirit, that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

You will know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets by their olive color. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.
